THE PERFECT

CHOICE

This is it, you're finally planning your wedding day, and I am so happy you've considered me to be a part of it! This day comes and goes faster than most of us want it to, and planning for it can sometimes be stressful. That is why my goal is to be open, transparent and easy to work with throughout your wedding planning journey!

As your wedding photographer and/or cinematographer, my goal is to capture every moment you and your partner share together on your amazing day. Every smile, hug, tear (of joy), laugh and of course, every kiss! I'd love the opportunity to talk with you, understand exactly what you're looking for, and see how I can turn your moments into memories!
